Dedication

When we started as freshmen through our four years at the Barnstable Vocational High School, this man became our advisor and has been through all the ups and downs in every step we took.

He devoted himself to us, not as an advisor alone, but as a father to all, and we thank him.

The vocational Class of 1972 dedicate this book to you,

Mr. Henry J. McGonigle

The "Colonel"

SECOND STRAIGHT CAPEWAY CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

1971-1972 Varsity Squad

RICHARD GRAVES, Head Coach . . . RICHARD SEGURA, Assistant

Winter Track

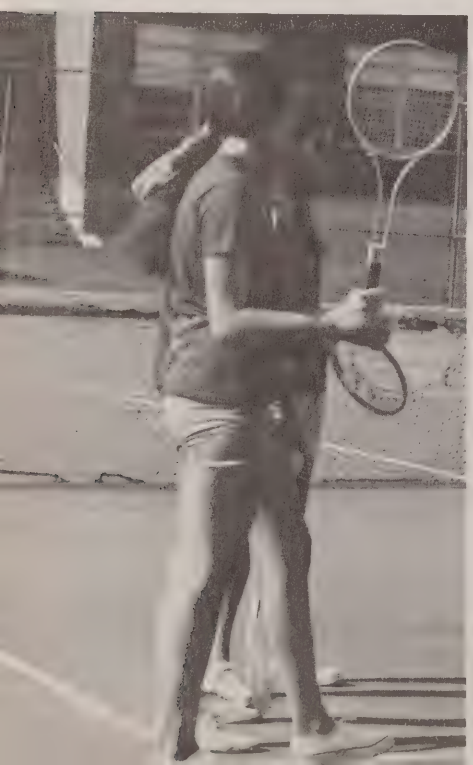
"On your mark! Get set! Go!" These are the commands heard on cold, winter afternoon track meets. Practice was held in the parking lots, quadrangle, school halls — whatever was available at the time. With Coach Cornforth at the helm, assisted by Milt Rice, we prepared for a great season. Some of the top point getting scorers on the 1971-72 winter track team were seniors Reid Hall, running the 300 yard dash, Mike Powers, running the 50 yard dash and the 600 yard run topped by Dave Marston. Jackson Santos usually took the lead in the 1,000 yard run and his brother Skip ran the 1 mile and 2 mile. These students gave Barnstable a winning combination.

Spring Track

Barnstable trackmen boasted a Capeway Conference championship in 1971, a title held since 1968. A repeat performance is expected in 1972 with such outstanding seniors as Gerald McDowell in the hurdles and triple jump, Reid Hall and Peter DeBarros in the 220 and Jackson Santos and Howard Buckley in the 880. Quarter miler Dave Marston and Skip Santos in the mile run can also be relied upon to accumulate needed victory points. Coaches Hal Cornforth, Dick Norman and Milt Rice have done a superior job in training the track squads. Tri-captains were Reid Hall, Skip Santos and Dave Marston.

Tennis

MISS FRANCES MABY, Girl's Coach



Tennis is a growing activity at Barnstable High School, evidenced by the larger number of girls and boys who tried out for the sport. The girl's team was coached by Miss Frances Maby. Each afternoon the teams would be on the courts practicing their shots for upcoming matches. Girls participating were: Virginia Beggs, Lisa Stimpson, Jane Paulding, Janice Princi, Margaret O'Neil, Mary Elston and Marilyn Cotton.

Pep Squad

Softball

In the 1971 season, the Barnstable High softball team captured the Capeway Conference crown under the guidance of Miss Katherine Nehubian. Many experienced girls are returning for the 1972 season and we feel sure they will continue Barnstable's fine record. Seniors in 1972 will be, Sharon Fish, Geri O'Donnell, Carole Lockhart, Laurie Coughlin, Laurie Boqen, Caroline Staten, Robin McClane, and Cindy Swan. Miss Priscilla Gallagher, a newcomer at B.H.S., will coach this eager and able team.

The girls' chorus consists of girls of grades ten through twelve and the boys' chorus from grades nine through twelve. The choruses performed for the three school concerts, Christmas, Pops and Spring concerts. A traveling chorus, approximately forty-five members chosen from the larger choruses, performs concerts for such clubs as the Rotary and Garden Club. For the first time this year the chorus will participate in an overnight exchange concert with Milton High School. The polished and capable performances of all chorus groups at B.H.S. are the result of Mrs. Hagon's interest and untiring efforts.

The Masquers are the Barnstable High students who are dedicated and devoted to the various aspects of theatrical productions. This organization has performed well during the past four years. First was "Oliver," a spring production, followed by the comical "Kiss Me Kate" and soon topped by the mad-dash "Guys and Dolls." This spring the Masquers deal with the sincerity of "Fiddler on the Roof." Other plays successfully performed were "Deadwood Dick" in '67, "The Rivals" in '69, "Monkey House" in '70, "Dracula Baby" in '71, and now "The Lark" in 1972. Advisor Mr. James Ruberti has been assisted by Mrs. Ruberti, choreographer Mrs. Cornforth, musical directors Mr. and Mrs. Hagon and pianist Mrs. Murphy. The club participates annually in the Southeastern Mass. Regional Drama Festival.

Health Service

The Health Service Assistance course is open to all junior and senior girls. The students go by bus to the Cape Cod Hospital where the course is taught. This program enables girls to become familiar with the work required of nurse's aides, before actually entering a nursing school. The course is given by two highly qualified nurses, Mrs. Levine and Mrs. DeLong. The class is affiliated with the Cape Cod Hospital, Bay Wing, Nazareth Hall and many other institutions of the Hyannis community. The Beverly School for the Deaf was also visited by the class.
